WHY IS
FOOD SAFETY
IMPORTANT?

Every year people get sick from eating contaminated food and water.

As a food handler, learning about safe food handling practices can help reduce the number of people getting sick. The Food Handler Course will teach you how to keep food as safe as possible in order to protect your community.

IMPORTANT FOR FOOD SERVICE PREMISES

As of July 1, 2018, there must be at least one food handler or supervisor on the premises who has completed food handler training during every hour in which the premises is operating. This is a provincial requirement that applies to all food premises in Ontario.
